Potential Farmland Forum Exhibitor,

First, a note from our President, Barbara Clark:

For our 2018 Farmland Forum at the Chicago High School for Agricultural Sciences, the planning team has been working diligently to host a top-notch event. We invite you to participate and encourage you to experience what we believe will be an opportunity for Chicago Farmers members, guests and students at the high school to gather information about topics in agriculture today and trends for the future.

Chicago High School for Agricultural Sciences, which opened its doors in September 1985, offers students career pathways in agricultural finance and economics, agricultural mechanics and technology, animal science, food science and technology, horticulture, biotechnology in agriculture. We're anticipating a great 2018 Farmland Forum and look forward to seeing you there.

The purpose of this letter is to invite you to reserve a booth at the Chicago Farmers' 2018 Farmland Forum. The Forum will be held on Saturday, February 10, 2018 at the Chicago High School for Agricultural Sciences located at 3857 W. 11th Street, Chicago, IL 60655.

The Farmland Forum draws over 300 attendees with farming interests every year. Your business can truly benefit from such attention by potential investors, customers, and other people involved in agriculture. Please reserve early to assure your placement by completing the exhibitor information letter and returning with payment by Friday, January 12, 2018.

As an exhibitor, you will be able to enter the Chicago High School for Ag Sciences on Friday, February 9th from 5:00 PM to 7:00 PM, as well as Saturday, February 10th, at 7:00 AM in order to set-up your booth for attendee arrival of 8:30 a.m.

On behalf of the 2018 Farmland Forum planning committee, we look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

Beth Brouwer
