LAND PRO LLC WELCOMES REAL ESTATE BROKER, DOUG DEININGER
Company focuses on land real estate brokerage, auctions, property management and consulting

OSWEGO, IL, February 5, 2015 – Land Pro LLC, a land real estate brokerage company, is proud to announce and welcome Real Estate Broker Doug Deininger, ALC . Doug joined Land Pro in December 2014 and provides land brokerage services for the south and southwestern Chicagoland collar counties.

Doug Deininger grew up on a hog and grain farm in Will County, Illinois. He earned a Bachelor's Degree and Master of Science Degree in animal science from the University of Illinois. In 1986, Deininger joined Capital Property Agricultural Property Services, Inc. ("CAPS"). While at CAPS, he was licensed as an Illinois Real Estate Salesperson in 1987 and as an Illinois Real Estate Broker in 1988, transitioning to a Real Estate Managing Broker license in 2012.

While Deininger was a farm manager, he received the Farm Manager Conservation Award-Eastern Division from the American Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers (ASFMRA) and Pioneer Hi-Bred International, Inc. The award recognizes individual farm managers for outstanding accomplishments in natural resource protection programs. Furthering his professional accomplishments, Deininger graduated from the Illinois Agricultural Leadership Program.

As a member of the Illinois Farm and Land Chapter of the REALTORS® Land Institute (RLI), Deininger was elected state president in 2000. He acquired his Accredited Land Consultant (ALC) accreditation in 2008. Also in 2008, the Illinois Chapter awarded Doug the Land Broker of the Year Award. During Doug's 28 year career, he has sold or acquired approximately $89 million in real estate.

Ray Brownfield, Land Pro Managing Broker and Owner, states, "We are very excited to welcome Doug to the Land Pro team. Doug brings tremendous experience, knowledge and is respected throughout the industry for his honesty, integrity and accomplishments. Doug truly shares our goal of being a professional land real estate specialist."
